Notes:

- Conditional Booking: If you are currently enrolled in a course that is the pre-requisite to a course you want to add for the next semester, you will be allowed to conditionally book that future course. A condition may be automatically dropped from your upcoming schedule after grades have been posted at the end of the current semester if you do not satisfy the pre-requisite for the course. A notification e-mail will be sent to your olemiss.edu account if this occurs. It is your responsibility to check your e-mail and make any adjustments to your schedule to avoid financial aid or other implications.
- Waitlisted Courses: You are not actually booked into the course. If a seat does become available and you are next on the waitlist, you will be moved into the class and notified via e-mail to your olemiss.edu account. You may also drop the waitlisted course at any time. Waitlisted courses DO NOT count toward the 12 hours needed for full-time enrollment.
- Swapping a Booked Section: To swap sections of a course for which you have already registered, you will have to drop the existing booking and then register for the other section.

Registration

Each year we inform incoming students that they are responsible for reading the Law School Catalog and to understand and abide by our rules and regulations.

Additionally, on many issues, the university's M Book policies may apply. There are a few areas, however, that cause recurring problems. Before students even register for classes, students should read the Honor Code and review the policies below:
