Character & Fitness

Because of the high ethical standards to which lawyers are held, the failure to disclose an act or event such as the ones described below is often more significant, and leads to more serious consequences, than the act or event itself. Failure to provide truthful answers, or failure to inform the Office of Admissions of any changes to your answers, may result in revocation of admission or disciplinary action by the School of Law, or denial of permission to practice law by the state in which you seek admission to the bar. We strongly urge you to note that it is your responsibility to update your application by notifying the University of Mississippi Office of Law Admissions if any criminal charges are filed or expected to be filed between the date you submit this application and the date you enroll at the University of Mississippi School of Law. If the answer is "yes" to any of the questions listed below, give dates and complete details in a separate attachment.

Please check that you have read the above paragraph.
