Alternative Spring Break Trip March 2013 Clarksdale, MS

The Alternative Spring Break Trip was an opportunity for students to facilitate a series of focus groups and individual interviews in Clarksdale, Shelby, and Tutwiler to seek information about how people in these communities prepare, grow, harvest, and purchase food. The students' goals were to use this information to work with participants to establish economic opportunities, create small businesses, and, over time, build a better food economy in the Mississippi Delta.
