ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS I 771 – Transformative Works and Copyright Fair Use (1 hour)

One of the most challenging areas of intellectual property law to practice involves copyright's fair use doctrine. This mini-seminar is designed to inspire spirited class debates on the existing fair use precedent and how it should be applied to the proliferation of transformative works encouraged by today's Internet society. This course will examine well-known parodies like SNL and Weird Al's songs; mashups like those done by the artist Girl Talk; music sampling; Internet memes; and fanworks including fanvids, fanart, and fanfiction. Students should be prepared to engage in enthusiastic discussion and to bring their own examples of transformative works to class with them. The class will meet 6 times for 2 hours each on weekday evenings over the course of the semester. Enrollment is capped at 9, first come first served.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS II 772 – Associate 101 (1 hour - Skills)

Every first-year associate in a law firm quickly realizes that the practice of law is different – significantly different – from the study of law. This course is designed to bridge the gap between your 3L year and your first year in practice. With topics that include "Law Firm Economics," "Everyday Ethics," "Writing an Invoice the Client Rushes to Pay" and "Chick Flicks in the Wide World of Sports," we'll discuss what lawyering looks like and feels like in the "real world" and what to expect in your first year of work as a law firm associate. Using practice tools and templates, books and movies about lawyers, working, and problem solving, as well as practitioner war-stories, we'll offer advice, coaching, and practice tips to help you prepare for your first year as a practicing lawyer and beyond.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS III 773 – Current Topics in International Law (1 hour)

From armed conflicts to refugee crises; from labor violations to trade disputes; from human trafficking to border disputes: international legal issues permeate our awareness of the world around us. This course will provide an overview of some of these current issues in international law, with a focus on understanding the legal problems they give rise to. No prior knowledge of international law is required. The class will meet 6 times for 2 hours each on weekday evenings over the course of the semester. Enrollment is capped at 9, first come first served.
