

Graduation Requirements for Transfer Student

As a transfer student, you must still satisfy, generally, the requirements for graduation. Specifically, you must complete here at the law school or receive transfer credit for:

- 1L Contracts (one semester)
- 1L Torts (one semester)
- 1L Property (one semester)
- 1L Criminal Law (one semester)
- 1L Constitutional Law I (one semester)
- 1L Civil Procedure I (or an equivalent) (one semester)

two semesters of

- 1L Legal Research (or an equivalent)
- 1L Legal Writing (or an equivalent)

If you have not received transfer credit for these courses, you must complete them here at the law school.

You do not need to complete the 1L Elective. Similarly, you do not need to complete the 1L Skill Session, although you must complete a substitute Skills Course while at the law school.

As a transfer student, you will receive a maximum of 30 transfer credits. You must complete the remaining 60 credits necessary for a degree here at the law school. You must also complete here at the law school the 2L and 3L Skill Sessions (or a substitute Skills Course, if appropriate, for instance because of early graduation), the Writing Requirement, and Legal Profession. You may not receive any additional credits toward the degree from visiting hours at another law school. Your 30 transfer credits count as regularly scheduled, graded hours for purposes of the law school's requirements.
