

Leave of Absence

After 1L: You may take one leave of absence for up two calendar years. With permission from the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, you may take an additional leave(s) of absence, but you must complete your graduation requirements within 84 months of matriculation.

During 1L: With permission from the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, you may take one leave of absence for up to one calendar year.

You must provide a written notice to the Registrar stating your intent to go on a leave of absence and you must provide written notice to the Registrar of your intent to return from a leave of absence before the beginning of the semester in which you intend to return.

Effect on Scholarship: The School of Law cannot guarantee your scholarship if you take a leave of absence. You must consult with the Assistant Dean of Admissions and Scholarships regarding the effect of a leave on your scholarship package.
