ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS I 771 – Transformative Works and Copyright Fair Use (1 hour)
One of the most challenging areas of intellectual property law to practice involves copyright’s fair use doctrine. This mini-seminar is designed to inspire spirited class debates on the existing fair use precedent and how it should be applied to the proliferation of transformative works encouraged by today’s Internet society. This course will examine well-known parodies like SNL and Weird Al’s songs; mashups like those done by the artist Girl Talk; music sampling; Internet memes; and fanworks including fanvids, fanart, and fanfiction. Students should be prepared to engage in enthusiastic discussion and to bring their own examples of transformative works to class with them. The class will meet 6 times for 2 hours each on weekday evenings over the course of the semester.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS II 772 §1 – Science Fiction and Law II (1 hour)
Many of the great works of science fiction deal with law in its various guises, some directly, others indirectly. In particular, science fiction offers a unique perspective to address issues relating to contemporary problems in law and society. This mini-seminar will explore some of the major themes of science fiction as they relate to law, including armed conflict, bioengineering, and climate change. Course materials will include short stories, graphic novels, novels, episodes from science fiction TV shows and movies. The class will meet 6 times for 2 hours each over the course of the semester.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS II 772 §2 – Mississippi Judicial Practice (2 hours)
The class is designed to introduce students to all facets of law practice in Mississippi Courts (state and federal). Current and former judges will lecture on subjects ranging from ethics in the courtroom, attorney civility, procedural and substantive practice in trial and appellate courts, etc.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS III 773 §1 – Advanced Appellate Motion Practice (1 hour)
For student currently enrolled in Criminal Appeals Clinic. For more information, please contact Professor Broadhead at pwb@olemiss.edu.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS III 773 §2 – The Supreme Court in American Life and History (1 hour)
This short course will take a tour of the U.S. Supreme Court in American history from its earliest days—back when Supreme Court justices had to travel the countryside to hold trials and were required by law to stay in public lodgings—up to the present, where justices exercise enormous and momentous power. Over four sessions, we will explore how the Court changed evolved over its 230 years from a small and weak institution into one of the dominant forces in American politics. We will examine its most politicized moments and how it handled (or mishandled) them, and we will identify the Justices who had the greatest impact in transforming the Court into what it is today. We will end with a look forward to the challenges yet to come. The instructor is a former U.S. Supreme Court clerk and a practitioner before that Court, and he will intersperse experiences and observations as relevant.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS IV 774 – Depositions (3 hours)
In this course, you will develop the basic skills necessary to taking and defending depositions in a variety of contexts and engaging in negotiations for purposes of the settlement of litigation and “deal-making” in the non-litigation context through a combination of lectures, in-class demonstrations and team exercises. Students will be introduced to and expected to demonstrate deposition questioning techniques and strategies, deposition planning and organization as well as the skills and strategies which form the basis of effective negotiations. (Z credit).

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS V 775 §1 – Criminal Litigation (1 hour – Skills)
The course will provide students with hands on experience moving a criminal case through the judicial system. Students will learn how to make initial contact with an arrestee, interview a client, set bond, interview witnesses and law enforcement officials, conduct a preliminary hearing, determine possible defenses, draft and argue motions, and make a record for appeal.
ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS VI 776 - Federal Sentencing Skills (2 hours - Skills)
Students provide a brief overview of current sentencing theory and law and an introduction to the federal sentencing guidelines. Most of the class however, will be spent doing. Students will be sentencing documents for two defendants (who will be played by two actors). Each student will represent one defendant and prosecute the other in a sentencing hearing. Students will be introduced to interviewing skills and will interview their assigned defendant to gather the facts necessary to represent the client in writing and before the court. Students will prepare a written sentencing memorandum that emphasizes both narrative and analytical writing.
