LEGAL RESEARCH AND WRITING I 514 (4 hours)
Continued study and practice of refined and expanded legal research and writing skills, applying them to more complex legal problems, primarily using federal law materials and focusing on persuasive legal writing.

TORTS 502 (4 hours)
Civil liability for harm to persons, property, and other interests, including negligence, intentional torts, and strict liability actions and related doctrine of causation, damages, privileges, and defenses.
Second- and Third-Year Courses (J.D. Program)

ACADEMIC LEGAL WRITING 745 (3 hours - Writing)
Academic Legal Writing is a seminar course on academic legal research, writing, and argument designed to help students prepare scholarly articles for publication.

Enrollment in this class requires the instructor’s approval.

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW 605 (3 hours)
Powers and procedures of administrative agencies and reviewing courts at the federal and state levels, including federal and state administrative procedures acts.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPIC I 771 – Law and Science Fiction I (1 hour)
Many of the great works of science fiction deal with law in its various guises, some directly, others indirectly. In particular, science fiction offers a unique perspective to address issues relating to contemporary problems in law and society. This mini-seminar will explore some of the major themes of science fiction as they relate to law and society, focusing on questions of diversity and autonomy. Course materials will include short stories, graphic novels, novels, episodes from science fiction TV shows and movies. The class will meet 6 times for 2 hours each over the course of the semester. (Z credit).

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPIC II 772 – Creative Writing for Lawyers (1 hour)
The construction of a powerful narrative from the relevant facts of the case is one of the most vibrant tools a lawyer can use in advocating for a client. Even transactional lawyers dealing mainly with contracts must be skilled in playing the imaginative game of what-if in deciding on contract language for future possible scenarios. This mini-seminar will use creative writing exercises to sharpen these story-telling skills. Students should be prepared to share such exercises during class meeting times and also to engage in supportive critiques of the works of others in the class. For those students with a love for creative writing, the course will conclude with discussions of publishing contracts and the intellectual property implications of many of the ways (including blogging and tweeting) in which lawyers write these days. The class will meet 6 times for 2 hours each on weekday evenings over the course of the semester. Enrollment is capped at 9, first come first served. Specific times, dates, and locations for meetings to be arranged once students are enrolled. (Z credit).

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPIC III 773 – Election Law: Voting Rights and the Role of Race in the Trump Supreme Court (1 hour)
Topics to include in one-hour Election Law course: Racial and partisan gerrymandering, ballot access, voter fraud, voter ID laws, vote dilution, campaign finance and corruption (focusing on U.S. v. Senator Bob Menendez), election contests and recount procedures

Sets of the three-editions of America Votes! Challenges to Modern Election Law & Voting Rights (ABA 2008, 2012, 2016) will be given to the top three law students in this class. (Z credit).

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPIC IV 774 – Trial Practice: Real Problems in Civil (3 hours - Skills)
The purpose of this course is to help the student prepare for civil practice in Mississippi. The course will focus on important Mississippi cases that are often cited and that routinely present problems for legal practitioners. We will start at the beginning of a case and walk through critical points in Mississippi civil practice.

This is a discussion class. Each student be asked to read a number of Mississippi cases. We will discuss and analyze why the case was decided the way it was (the strategy implemented) and consider alternative outcomes (what could have happened with a different legal strategy). The goal is to give the student knowledge and confidence in how to litigate cases in Mississippi.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPIC IV 774 – The Constitution of Economic Liberty (1 hour)
This course will focus on the philosophical roots of economic liberty and explore how those roots should inform jurisprudence and political thought. It will delve into constitutional first principles and how the Supreme Court has applied them. It will challenge students to deepen their understanding of the relationship between economic liberty and legal rights, and to test personal beliefs against commitments to the rule of law. Students will write a response paper reacting to the readings for each session.
ADVANCED LEGAL TOPIC VI 776 – General Practice (3 hours – Skills)
Instruction and practice in the legal skills needed for pretrial practice in federal and state courts, including pretrial planning, investigation, pleading, discovery, motions, and settlement.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPIC VI 777 – Leadership in Law (2 hours)
This course will prepare students for responsible leadership and service in the roles that they have in law school and as future lawyers. Students will be introduced to basic principles and methods of leadership and apply what they are learning to their current leadership role(s) within a student organization at the University of Mississippi School of Law. Students will assess their own leadership skills and abilities and critically examine the leadership traits, styles, and decision-making processes of leaders/lawyers. Registration in this course requires concurrent service on the Executive Board of a Registered Student Organization.

ADVANCED LEGAL WRITING 712 (3 hours - Writing)
A lecture/lab course to expand skills acquired in first-year legal research and writing courses.

ADVOCACY COMPETITION 761 (1 hour)
Participation in an external skills competition or similar program (including appellate advocacy, mock trial, negotiation, and other advocacy or skills activities). (Z credit).

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION 651 (3 hours - Skills)
Introduction to nonadjudicative dispute resolution processes that utilize problem-solving approaches to resolve disputes, including client interviewing and counseling, negotiation, mediation, arbitration, summary jury trials, special masters, mini-trials and mediation-arbitration. Practical experience gained through role-playing exercises.

BAR EXAM SKILLS 591 (2 hours)
This class is for students who will be taking the July bar exam. Unlike a commercial bar review class, which focuses on reviewing the substantive material the exam will cover, this class will prepare students for the entire process of studying for and taking the bar exam. Students will develop a game plan for studying and mastering the material and will then learn techniques to master each part of the exam: multiple-choice questions, essay questions, and the performance test.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT AND THE JUDICIAL PROCESS 721 (3 Hours)
A seminar course covering the philosophical and sociological debates over the death penalty, focusing on significant U.S. Supreme Court cases concerning the death penalty since 1972.

CHILDREN IN THE LEGAL SYSTEM 646 (3 hours)
Study of the law as it relates to minors in the public and private sectors.
