Character & Fitness

Because of the high ethical standards to which lawyers are held, the failure to disclose an act or event such as the ones described below is often more significant, and leads to more serious consequences, than the act or event itself. Failure to provide truthful answers, or failure to inform the Office of Admissions of any changes to your answers, may result in revocation of admission or disciplinary action by the School of Law, or denial of permission to practice law by the state in which you seek admission to the bar. We strongly urge, if you are unsure as to whether to make a disclosure, you err on the side of disclosure. Please note: it is your responsibility to update your application by notifying the University of Mississippi Office of Law Admissions if any criminal charges are filed or expected to be filed between the date you submit this application and the date you enroll at the University of Mississippi School of Law. If the answer is "yes" to any of the questions listed below, give dates and complete details in a separate attachment.

Please check that you have read the above paragraph.

I have read the above statement.

Have you ever been expelled, suspended, or dismissed from any college or university for any reason?

Have you ever been charged with, arrested for, convicted of, or pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to a violation of any law? This includes minor traffic violations, charges of driving under the influence, or any other drug- or alcohol-related offenses and any expunged offenses. You should also disclose offenses which resulted in purged, sealed, obliterated, dismissed or destroyed records, regardless of whether you have been told that you need not disclose any such event. These will also be requested by state bar authorities in many states.

If "yes", please attach a statement explaining the circumstances of each incident, whether such incident is still pending, and if not, its resolution. You should also be very specific about the dates of any incidents and the dates of resolution of said incidents.

Certification

By submitting this application electronically, I certify that the information provided by me on this application is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that falsifications, misrepresentations, or omissions on the application may be grounds for denial; or, if I am accepted, for suspension or dismissal from the Law School or revocation of an offer of admission or of a degree. I understand that I have a continuing duty to disclose (within 5 days) any changes in any of the facts indicated on this application after the filing of the application and through my graduation from this law school. Failure to do so may result in dismissal from the Law School or other appropriate action.

____ I agree with the above statement.

Applicants who intend to practice law should be aware that admission to the bar in all states involves character, fitness and other qualifications. Applicants are encouraged to determine the character and fitness requirements of the jurisdiction(s) where they intend to practice law. If you are uncertain where you will practice law, you may wish to review the Standard NCBE Character and Fitness Application, titled Request for Preparation of a Character Report, of the National Conference of Bar Examiners, which is used by a number of jurisdictions' bar admission authorities. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available at www.ncbex.org.
