ADVANCED LEGAL RESEARCH 720 (2 hours)

Legal research strategies and resources (including electronic resources, CD-ROM, the Internet, and online services) for specialized topics, such as municipal law, legislative history, federal administrative law, and international law.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS I 771 – Transformative Works and Copyright Fair Use (1 hour)

One of the most challenging areas of intellectual property law to practice involves copyright's fair use doctrine. This mini-seminar is designed to inspire spirited class debates on the existing fair use precedent and how it should be applied to the proliferation of transformative works encouraged by today's Internet society. This course will examine well-known parodies like SNL and Weird Al's songs; mashups like those done by the artist Girl Talk; music sampling; Internet memes; and fanworks including fanvids, fanart, and fanfiction. Students should be prepared to engage in enthusiastic discussion and to bring their own examples of transformative works to class with them. The class will meet 6 times for 2 hours each on weekday evenings over the course of the semester.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS III 773 – The Great Chief Justice: John Marshall and American Law (1 hour)

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS IV 774 – Depositions (3 hours)

In this course, you will develop the basic skills necessary to taking and defending depositions in a variety of contexts and engaging in negotiations for purposes of the settlement of litigation and "deal-making" in the non-litigation context through a combination of lectures, in-class demonstrations and team exercises. Students will be introduced to and expected to demonstrate deposition questioning techniques and strategies, deposition planning and organization as well as the skills and strategies which form the basis of effective negotiations. (Z credit).

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS V 775 – Criminal Litigation (1 hour)

The course will provide students with hands on experience moving a criminal case through the judicial system. Students will learn how to make initial contact with an arrestee, interview a client, set bond, interview witnesses and law enforcement officials, conduct a preliminary hearing, determine possible defenses, draft and argue motions, and make a record for appeal.

ADVANCED LEGAL TOPICS II 777 – Mississippi Judicial Practice (2 hours)

The class is designed to introduce students to all facets of law practice in Mississippi Courts (state and federal). Current and former judges will lecture on subjects ranging from ethics in the courtroom, attorney civility, procedural and substantive practice in trial and appellate courts, etc.

ADVANCED TORTS 754 (2 hours)

This course will cover some or all of the following topics: defamation, privacy, misuse of legal procedure, interferences with advantage relations, statutory torts, civil rights, products liability and other possible areas of Torts not covered in the required first-year course. It is a standard lecture course, with the possibility of some drafting of legal documents and other exercises to develop practice skills. Note: exam or paper course, at the professor's discretion.
