

About the UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS | School of Law

The University of Arkansas School of Law is nestled in the foothills of the Ozark Mountains on the U of A System's flagship campus in Fayetteville. As part of the state's top-rated land-grant university, the law school celebrates the best of what public legal education offers today's students and maintains a deep commitment to access to legal education and justice.

First Time Bar Passage

91%

(July 2020 | State Average: 80.5%)

Best Value Law School

10 YEARS

(preLaw magazine 2011-2020)

Nation's First

1st

LL.M. in Agricultural and Food Law

(founded in 1980)

law.uark.edu

Recent work by Fayetteville Faculty may be found in these and other legal journals.

- Boston University Law Review
- California Law Review
- Fordham Law Review
- Georgia Law Review
- Iowa Law Review
- Michigan Law Review
- Minnesota Law Review
- Northwestern Law Review
- Ohio State Law Journal
- Stanford Law Review
- Texas Law Review
- UCLA Law Review
- Virginia Law Review
- Washington Law Review
- Washington University Law Review
- William and Mary Law Review

TOP 10

Fayetteville, AR
Best Places to Live

(U.S. News and World Report 2016-2020)