Individual Study I and II
(adopted and effective Oct. 20, 2021)

A student may enroll in Individual Study I (Law 615) or Individual Study II (Law 715) as described below. In summary, an Individual Study I is a 1, 2 or 3 Z-credit course for students who wish to conduct supervised research, draft supervised writings, or both, or compete in an international, national, regional or local competition. An Individual Study II is a 1-, 2-, or 3-credit graded course for students who wish to draft a supervised writing(s). A student may not receive any other credit for work completed pursuant to an Individual Study I or II.

As student shall complete and submit to the Registrar the Application for Individual Study I or II form, as applicable, at least one week prior to the beginning of the term during which the Individual Study will occur (and save a copy to be submitted at the end of the term). The student shall complete and submit the Completion of Individual Study I or II form, as applicable, to the Registrar no later than the last day of exams for the term during the Individual Study will occur.

The Registrar may not accept, and the Committee may not review or approve, any Application for Individual Study I/II that is incomplete or submitted to the Registrar less than one week prior to the beginning of the term during which credit will be earned. Upon request by a student, the Associate Dean for Academic Study may extend the deadline for submission, review and approval. The Registrar shall forward Applications to the Curriculum and Practices Committee as soon as practicable after they are received.

The Curriculum and Practices Committee may amend the forms discussed in this policy without faculty approval.

I. Individual Study I

A student who enrolls in Individual Study I:

- Shall, under the supervision of a faculty member: (1) conduct research or draft a writing(s), or both, on an assigned topic(s), or (2) participate in a regional or national competition (“competition”) as part of a mock appellate, trial, negotiation, mediation or arbitration team, or other competition team.
- May receive: (1) 1 Z credit hour for participating in a competition, (2) 1 or 2 Z credit hours, as determined by the supervising faculty member, for conducting research or drafting a writing(s), or both, on an assigned topic(s), or (3) 3 Z credit hours for a writing(s) that would satisfy the Upper Level Writing Requirement but for the requirement that the writing(s) be graded.
- For a 3-credit Individual Study I, the student shall obtain prior approval from the Curriculum and Practices Committee.

II. Individual Study II

A student who enrolls in Individual Study II:

- Shall, under the supervision of a faculty member, complete a writing or writings that satisfy the requirements for the Upper Level Writing Requirement (“ULWR”).
- May receive 1, 2 or 3 graded credits (i.e., may not receive Z credits) as determined by the supervising faculty member and indicated on the Application for Individual Study II.
- For a 2- or 3-credit Individual Study II, the student shall obtain prior approval from the Curriculum and Practices Committee.
