

University of Mississippi School of Law
Full Summer Session 2023
Online Instruction (Distance Education)
May 30 – July 26

Exam Classes – Exams will be held July 27-28

Law 516: Wills and Estates (3 hours)

Professor Gershon

The execution, revocation, construction, and probate of wills and the administration of trusts and estates.

Law 635: Criminal Procedure I: Investigation (3 hours)

Professor Rychlak

A study of constitutional restrictions on criminal investigative practice, which typically precede institution of formal judicial proceedings, with special emphasis upon search and seizure, interrogation, right to counsel at the pretrial stage, and operation of the exclusionary rule.

Skills Classes

Law 699: Interviewing and Counseling (3 hours)

Professor Williams

Theory and practice of interviewing and counseling clients and negotiating on their behalf.

Writing Classes

Law 701: Selected Legal Topics II: Problem Solving in Space Law (3 hours)

Professor Hanlon

This class will provide an overview of space law with specific focus on how international law, norms and regulations will affect new activities in space, space businesses and businesses that rely on space assets. Using real world examples, the course will provide students with an understanding of legal issues related to space business and the tools available to help shape nascent aspects of US law and regulation to support commercial industry, science and our environment in a responsible and sustainable way.

Law 744: Law and Film (3 hours)

Professor Derrick

The use of films as legal texts, with a focus on the effects of films on popular perception of the law, lawyers, law practice, public policy and ethics.

Other

Law 703: Selected Legal Topics III: Advanced Legal Analysis (2 hours)

Professor Hester

Advanced Legal Analysis provides students with the foundational skills necessary to be successful in law school and on the bar exam. The focus of the course will be on essay writing and analytical skills. The course will also introduce skills related to multiple choice questions, practical tests, learning and studying, and test-taking.

Registration is limited to rising 2L students with a GPA below 2.8. Please contact the Law Registrar's Office to be enrolled in this course.