

Calvin D Peeler
1408 Fernwood Drive
High Point, North Carolina 27262
(310) 918-5657; calvindpeeler@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Stanford University, Palo Alto, California

- J.S.M., School of Law, Stella W. and Ira S. Lillick Scholarship and Spaeth Fellow (1995)
- M.A., French Literature (1994)

University of California, Berkeley, California

- Juris Doctor, School of Law
- M.P.P., School of Public Policy
- B.A., Linguistics, Magna Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

The College Preparatory and Leadership Academy (2022 – present)

Teacher (2022 present) = teach World History, Civics, Economics and Personal Finance.

Independent Contractor, (2016 – present)

- Manager and Board Director for several limited liability business entities

Whittier College School of Law, Costa Mesa, CA

- Professor of Law (1995 – 2016) – taught contract law and California community property; occasionally taught Torts, Family Law and additional courses as needed
- Associate Dean for Academic Affairs (2002 – 2015) – (1) collaborated with administrators, faculty, students and staff to develop the academic curriculum in compliance with institutional goals as well as to comply with the requirements of all accrediting agencies; (2) negotiated teaching assignments, (3) developed entire curriculum, scheduled and assigned classrooms based upon enrollment and instructional needs; (4) recruited adjunct faculty from local bar; (5) counseled students regarding course registration; (6) advised students about their academic performance and risks for disqualification; (7) reviewed all requests for special accommodations pursuant to the American Disabilities Act; (8) investigated and adjudicated of allegations of honor code violations, including claims of harassment and academic misconduct; (9) organized and hosted annual week-long orientation for new students; (10) completed annual accreditation surveys; (11) managed clerical staff, completing annual performance reviews to support recommendations for salary adjustments, provide counsel to staff; (12) served as ex-officio member on faculty committees; (13) revised policy manual codifying new policies and rules and policy statements; (14) advocated for diversity in faculty and student recruitment; (15) collaborated with administrators and faculty to develop strategies to establish best practices to employ in order to evaluate student learning outcomes and to develop diagnostic and formative assessment tools to address student performance problems and issues identified through summative assessment; (16) evaluated existing practices regarding all aspects of student services and student life including, but not limited to, the interests of diverse student populations, access to services, student satisfaction with educational opportunities, policies regarding student organizations and student retention, making appropriate recommendations for institutional and policy changes.

- Associate Dean for International Relations (2007 – 2016 and concurrently with Academic Dean above) – initiated international outreach and negotiated agreements to operate summer law programs in China, France, Mexico, and Spain; developed marketing material for all study abroad programs in collaboration with program directors.
 - Program Director – on site director of summer law programs in France and Santander and Barcelona, Spain. Developed and operated the Barcelona program in collaboration with The Williams Institute of UCLA Law School which focused on domestic and international law and policy issues regarding the LGBTQ communities.
 - Program Director – inaugurated and directed a graduate LL.M. program for foreign lawyers serving as their academic advisor.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

License: California Bar
Languages: French, Intermediate Spanish, notions in Italian
Skills: Public speaking, proficient in Microsoft word, excel, Power Point, and general office equipment; curious by nature and willing to learn and adapt to new policies and procedures as well as technological advances